

If we wish to reach for the sky Must come from that burning force from within which resides
 Is but that Special Force in our hearts which lies
 To help us climb the highest mountains in our time
 When, failure is not an option
 In what we decide
 To help us win all those wars with courage fine
 Will we give up or steadfastly go onward to rebuild our lives?
 Will we harness that great force from deep down inside?
 Or live in pity and cry?
 As on each new day a part of us begins to die
 When that magnificent force so decides
 So hold's the key to help us make our strides
 To from out of the ashes to begin to rise
 To new beginnings,
 To new heights realized Just when all our hopes and dreams so seem to be compromised
 All in these the darkest days of our lives
 But, comes that Special Force from deep
 down inside
 The kind of force which helps us go off to war
 And give up all we love and adore
 With the kind of light that helps us put it all on the line
 That even makes the angels up in heaven cry
 And makes us heaven bound when we die
 Indeed it takes a special heart
 Who will don a uniform and so patriotically march onward to do their part
 But, for the greater good all in their hearts
 As did you Jared thou art
 And oh what a striking figure in uniform you'd so cast Like all of our great American Heroes into the future and from out of the past
 Who went off to war and did not ask
 And then that fateful day
 When, they took your strong arm and leg away
 And your brother Ssgt Vazquez's life, for whom you still weep for this day While, lying so close to death
 Would you fall or would you crest?
 As it looked as if you had none left
 As when you chose to fight your new fight, all in your quest
 As we stood back in awe, and watched what your heart of courage could so etched
 As this Special Force deep down inside of you would bless
 As your heart and soul began to flex Even Arnold, such dynamic gains could not expect!
 As always,
 To be the best
 No limits
 No limits,
 From you Jared is what we've all come to expect
 As we watched your magnificent heart so flex
 What will we do in the darkest days of our lives?
 When, all around us such heartache lies
 When, all the hope seems to die
 All in war's aftermath which lies
 Will we find the strength to climb Letting that Special Force in hearts help us to find
 The strength and courage and faith to all remind
 That there is no mountain high enough,
 No sorrow deep enough
 No valley steep enough
 Which can defeat that Special Force Inside.

IN RECOGNITION OF NANCY CAMP-BELL FOR HER CAREER WITH THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S LAW CENTER

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 26, 2017

Mrs. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Ms. Nancy Campbell for her work with the National Women's Law Center. As founder and co-president of the organization, Ms. Campbell has been an effective advocate for women throughout her career.

Ms. Campbell began her career as a law professor with appointments at the Georgetown University Law Center and Catholic University's School of Law in Washington, DC. She also served as an attorney with the Center on Social Welfare Policy and Law, where she cofounded the National Women's Law Center with Marcia Greenberger in 1981 as an outgrowth of their work with the institution. The NWLC provides legal assistance for women and develops legislative initiatives to promote fair treatment for women and girls in the United States. The center has been at the forefront of driving action to address these issues, and its advocacy has led to real improvements in protections for women, including stronger enforcement of Title IX, the federal law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex.

As cofounder of the NWLC, Ms. Campbell has played a pivotal role in shaping the organization and advancing priorities for women. She was a participant in a successful Supreme Court case that expanded AFDC eligibility to include two-parent families with unemployed mothers, and has strengthened the rights of military women who have faced sexual harassment and discrimination in the workplace. As a result of these accomplishments, Ms. Campbell has received numerous accolades, including a Lifetime Achievement Award from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the District of Columbia Bar's William J. Brennan Award in recognition of her outstanding legal career serving the public. She has been a tireless advocate for women and families, and it is my hope that the NWLC continues to build on her legacy of excellence as she moves on from her current position with the organization.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Ms. Nancy Campbell for her career with the National Women's Law Center. Ms. Campbell's efforts have led to significant improvements in legal protections for women.

Mrs. BUSTOS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Brian Curless of Pittsfield, Illinois, for being named the 54th annual World Livestock Auctioneer Champion by the Livestock Marketing Association.

Mr. Curless stood out amongst 30 other auctioneers in the World Livestock Auctioneer Championship, and was awarded this prestigious title after three rounds of competition. This event works to bring together North America's best livestock auctioneers, showcasing the skill and professionalism required in the livestock auction industry. As someone who has visited the LMA-member Fairview Sale Barn and learned how to be auctioneer from Mr. Curless during a "Cheri on Shift," I can undoubtedly speak to his passion and talent.

Mr. Speaker, I want to again formally congratulate Mr. Curless on his title as the World Livestock Auctioneer Champion. I am proud to have Mr. Curless represent our strong agricultural community on the world's stage.

BICENTENNIAL OF MCCONNELLSVILLE, OHIO

HON. STEVE STIVERS

OF OHIO

Mr. STIVERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today on behalf of the people of Ohio's 15th Congressional District to recognize the bicentennial of McConnelsville, Ohio. Since the earliest settlers first made their homes in the village of Old Town, along the Muskingum River, McConnelsville has been the hub of Morgan County and serves as a reminder of much of our nation's early history.

As early as 1817, many recognized the advantages of the area, including the town's namesake, Roger McConnel. One of the community's earliest residents, he saw its potential and gifted four lots to the fledgling town. A tribute to his memory and the strength of this community, the town's Court House still stands resolute on two of those lots.

Fueled by Mr. McConnel's gift and its strategic location on the riverfront, the area grew rapidly in its earliest years—five churches, fifteen stores, two newspaper offices, and four factories had sprung up by 1846.

Today, it remains the county seat of Morgan County, and a wonderful place to work, live, and raise a family. I am grateful for the leadership of Mayor John Finley, the Members of the Village Council, and all of the neighbors and friends who have maintained McConnelsville's strong connection to tradition and history.

I am honored to represent this village, where the core values of our nation are exemplified. This is a place where community, faith, and freedom are celebrated not just in recognition of the 200th anniversary of its founding, but each and every day.
